Apply – Part 1

Establishing SBA Basic Eligibility

SBA Basic Eligibility
Once you have created an account and claimed the business, the next step is to complete the SBA basic eligibility questions, which should automatically populate on the screen during your first login.

Basic eligibility includes confirming the primary NAICS code data pulled from SAM and the firm’s business size. For confirming the Size, you need to provide your firm's size details such as the ‘Number of employees’/ ‘Annual revenue’ for the number of years your firm has been in business. On providing the details, the application runs the standards check and confirms if your considered small in accordance with size standards and eligible for Government contracting.

If the firm’s business size does not meet the standards set by NAICS, then the firm is not eligible for the SBA small business program.

If you do meet all the eligibility requirements, after completing the questionnaire, you will be redirected to the dashboard where you can start creating the WOSB or EDWOSB application.

Assigning a Delegate to the Application
In applying for WOSB or EDWOSB, you must first decide if you will be completing the application or if you will be assigning a delegate to complete it on your behalf.

A delegate is a person enabled by the applicant to input responses and documents on the applicant's behalf. However, the applicant is directly responsible and must complete the application's attestation questions and electronically sign the application before submission.

You can assign a delegate one of two ways. Once you create the WOSB application, the portal displays the option to add a delegate or you can add the delegate in the application overview page. We are going to walk through adding a delegate to a new application from the dashboard.

Click ‘New application’ in the dashboard.

Select ‘yes’ for the question, ‘Are you assigning a delegate for this application?’

Click the ‘Assign Delegate’ button.

Fill in the delegates information, their first name, last name, and email.

Click the ‘Send Invitation to Collaborate’ button.

If you ever need to update the delegate’s information, enable or disable the delegate, or send reminders, do so, by selecting the down arrow icon next to their ‘Status’ and choose the appropriate option.
However, if you are happy with the addition of the delegate you have input go ahead and select ‘Next’.

The system will send an invite to the delegate's email id inviting him or her to collaborate.

The invited delegates receive an email for notification of collaboration. They will log in to the beta.Certify.sba.gov portal by clicking the link in his/her email. On logging in he/she shall find the application in the dashboard. They can start providing the responses and documents for the questionnaire on the Applicant’s behalf. However, the Applicant is directly responsible and must complete the application’s attestation questions and electronically sign the application before submission.

These ownership control questions are displayed one by one for the applicants to respond and upload the supporting documents.
